BROOKLYN GOSSIP.

Jack Hamburger is back again from the South, much to the delight of his large circle of acquaintances. Mr. Hamburger, who has been wandering through Texas in search of amusement, has brought back with him many interesting mementos of his trip, including relics from the scene of the Alamo massacre. A piece of the rope used in the recent New Orleans lynching to hang one of the Italians, and the hat worn by Chief Hennessey at the time of his murder, are among the treasures Jack has to show his friends.

Few men about town are better known than Peter Walsh, whose exquisite manner of dress and strict observance of the proprie ties has carned for aim the title of " Beau Brummell" Walsh. Mr. Walsh is also widely cnown as "the poor man's friend."

William E. Delaney has recently developed marked penchant for road sports. He can seen in the Park every pleasant day behind a clean built little mare with a record of 2.30. Billy and his headlight diamond are well known about the City Hall.

AMULETS ON WATCH-GUARDS.

A Little Superstition that Many People Cling To.

It is upon watch guards nowadays that amulets are mostly worn, says the Washington Star, They are supposed to possess all sorts of virtues supernatural. It scrite not only with the members of is astonishing how many people, even in but in the smateur circles of | this enlightened nineteenth century, bave

That cleanes and regulates them mildly and gently, but thoroughly and effectively.

They're the original little Liver Pills, these tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules—the smallest and the endest to take.

One little Fellet for a laxative—three for a cathartic. Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels are prevented, relieved, and cured.
